NOTE.—The first church erected in Morris County, N. J., was at Whippany, and in the ground about it the earliest settlers of this region were buried. The church was afterwards removed to Hanover, about three miles to the eastward, and subsequently burials were made both at Whippany and around the new church. Genealogists who have traced the families here represented, have had frequent occasion to search for and copy inscriptions on the grave stones found in these cemeteries. To preserve these records from destruction exact copies have been taken, and to make them convenient for examination this pamphlet has been printed. As far as possible, eccentricities of spelling, &c., have been carefully preserved.

To this sad Shrine the Reliques we commend,
Of once the tender Mother, Wife & Friend,
Too soon, alas those tender Tyes were broke,

Friends, Husband, Children, felt ye fatal Stroke:
Yet cease fond Grief—no murmring Sigh arise,
Heav'n struck ye Blow—and Heav'n is just & wise.

Think dying Passenger: Life's final Date
Steals on thee, heedless of impending Fate,
While Pleasure courts thee with her smiling Charms
Prepare to meet thy God—the Tomb alarms:

Man cometh forth like a flower and is cut down.
Job. 14, 2.

Day after day we think what she is doing,
In those bright realms of air;
Year after year her heav'nly steps pursuing,
We know she now is there.

Thus will we walk with her and keep unbroken,
The bond which nature gives;
Thinking that our remembrance though unspoken
May reach her where she lives.

We're pained to feel our friend lies here,
A son and brother dear;
At noon was well and ere 'twas night,
Jehovah spake!—we knew 'twas right,
His call we must obey.

Then strech'd upon a painful bed
For twelve short days Jehovah said
His kind physicians o'er his bed
Stood night and day, till lo! he's dead.

Fair fleeting comfort of an hour,
How soon we're called to part.

Harrison.—Mary Woodruff, wife of A. V. Harrison, died Aug. 11th 1855. aged 47 years 7 months & 29 days.

O! weep not for the friends that pass,
Into the lonely grave;
As breezes sweep the withered grass,
Along the restless wave.
For though thy pleasures may depart,
And mournful days be given,
And lonely though on earth thou art,
Yet bliss awaits the holy heart
When friends rejoin in heaven.

My husband my partner my friend,
This cold sod now covers thy clay;
Thy soul hath ascended to God,
And left me and my offspring in sadness to stay.

And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me; Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Rev. xiv. 13.

Sleep lovely babe thy pains are past,
Disease can trouble the no more;
And enter on that peaceful rest,
There may thy spotless spirit soar,
Yes let this mouldering dust remain,
Nor fear death's cruel sting;
Thy deathless soul shall bloom again,
In that eternal spring.

The Lord my shepherd is,
I shall be well supplied;
Since he is mine and I am his,
What can I want beside.
He leads me to the place,
Where heavenly pasture grows;
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.

Young.—Joseph C. Son of Joseph G. & Mary C Young, died Jan. 30, 1841, aged 2 years 8 months & 25 days.

His words the happy parents hear
And shout with joys divine
O, Saviour all we have and are
Shall be forever thine.

Young.—Lydia K Baldwin, wife of John Young, Born Feb. 8, 1802, Died Nov. 12, 1872.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, Yea, Saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

Young.—Mary wife of Anthony Young Died Mar. 8, 1859 Æ 56 years 3 mo. & 8 days.

Affliction sore long time I've bore,
Physicians tried in vain,
When God was pleased, my pain he ceased,
And marked me for his own.

Young.—Mary Caroline Baird wife of Peter G. Young. Died Aug. 17 1868. Aged 30 years 8 mo. & 13 days.

Young.—Mary C. Lewis Wife of Joseph G. Young Died Aug. 25, 1867. Aged 65 years 1 mo. & 15 days.

Our few revolving years
How swift they glide away
How short the term of life appears
When past, but as a day.

Inscriptions on the Tomb Stones and Monuments in the Grave Yards at Whippany and Hanover, Morris County, New Jersey

William Ogden Wheeler & Edmund D. Halsey

The first church in Morris County was initially located at Whippany and subsequently moved to Hanover about three miles away. Many of the early settlers of the county were buried in the two cemeteries associated with this church.

All the inscriptions from these two burial places are transcribed here in full, including the verses, in an alphabetical arrangement.
